SEPARATED IN SORROW

Somber Pall of Death Hang Over Both Chambers of Congress.

ADJOURNED FOR HOLIDAY RECESS.

Consort of Senate's Presiding Officer And a Member of the House Pass Through the Everlasting Gates. Little Business Transacted.

Washington, Dec. 21.—No business was transacted by the senate Friday. News of the death of Mrs. William P. Frye, wife of the president pro tem of the senate, was conveyed officially to the body and out of respect to her memory, adjournment was taken immediately until Jan. 3, on account of the holiday recess.

Senator Fairbanks (Ind.) called the body to order and the Rev. Dr. W. H. Milburn offered an invocation.

The secretary then read a letter from Senator Frye appointing Senator Fairbanks presiding officer during his absence from the senate.

Meantime a conference of senators had been held as to the order of business. The reading of the journal was suspended and at 12:05 p. m., on motion of Mr. Hoar, the senate adjourned.

In the House.

When the house met there were less than 100 members on the floor. The majority of the members already had departed for their homes to spend the holiday recess. The chaplain in his invocation referred tenderly to the death of Mrs. Frye, wife of Senator Frye, and to the death of Representative Wise of Virginia. After the approval of the journal some routine minor business was transacted by unanimous consent. Bills were passed to fix the times for holding court for the eastern district of Texas.

Mr. Jones (Va.) announced the death of Representative Wise at Williamsburg, Va. He offered the customary resolutions which were adopted and the speaker appointed a committee of 17 to attend the funeral. Then, at 12:25 p. m., the house adjourned until Jan. 3.

The house has passed the Indian and the military academy appropriation bills. The former carried $9,036,526 and the latter $700,151. Neither provoked much discussion.

Porto Rican Affairs.

San Juan, P. R., Dec. 21.—A bill introducing the jury system in Porto Rico has passed both houses. Frederick L. Cornwell, a member of the house of delegates, has introduced a house bill providing for an appropriation of $30,000 for an insular exhibit at the exposition at Buffalo, provided the people raise $20,000 in addition. The house passed a bill fixing salaries of the five native councillors at $4,000. This is considered excessive as it exceeds the salary of some of the department heads. It is not likely to pass the council.

River Improvements.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The secretary of war has sent to congress the report of the government engineers on the project of widening and improving the St. Clair flats canal, making it adequate for two channels, the estimated cost being $330,000. He has also sent to congress the report of survey of the Big Sandy river in Kentucky and West Virginia involving extensive project of improvement. The plan contemplates construction of 21 locks and movable dams. The cost of the work is estimated at $4,725,000.

Cabinet Meeting.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The cabinet meeting was devoid of interest, no public business of importance being transacted. It was expected that the Hay-Pauncefote treaty as amended by the senate would be considered at the meeting with a view to arriving at a determination as to returning it to the British government. It was found, however, that the document has not passed through the hands of the recording clerks of the senate, so no reference was made to the treaty at the cabinet meeting.

Philippine Legislation.

Manila, Dec. 21.—The Philippine commission has passed bills prescribing that English text shall be used in the construction of all laws enacted; authorizing the provost marshal to establish police and health regulations, with limited punishments for their violation, appropriating $75,000 for the immediate construction of a highway from Pozorrubio, province of Pangasinan, to Baguio, in Benguet province, along the line surveyed for a government railroad.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Commander T. F. Hanford has been ordered to command the Cavite station, vice Lieutenant Commander J. C. Fremont, ordered to command the Culgoa.

VENGEANCE SANCTIONED.

Court Wasted no Sympathy on a Beast Blinded by Betrayal Girl.

Boston, Dec. 21.—The most remarkable criminal case tried in a Massachusetts court in many years, and which aroused intense interest in the fashionable Back Bay district, ended when Judge Bond probationed Marion Rogan, who had blinded for life Dr. Frank I. Taylor, a dentist, by throwing vitriol in his face out of revenge for betrayal. The young girl had appeared before the judge, told her pitiable story and showed the white-haired justice her little babe of which she claimed Taylor is the father. She said Taylor, after he wrecked her life, told her he was irresistible among women by reason of his good looks.

In announcing his decision Judge Bond said it appeared from the evidence that Dr. Taylor had sought out Miss Rogan, "knowing she was a virtuous woman, who had in no way wronged him, for the sole purpose of causing her ruin; and after he accomplished it by fraud and deception and the use of intoxicating liquors, if not by drugs, he unfeelingly cast her off without assistance and advised her to resort to a life of prostitution, and even boasted of his disgraceful conduct with this young woman and with others whom he had ruined. Such a man," the judge declared, "is so vile that I have no sympathy or pity for him in his unfortunate condition."

Judge Bond said he regretted Miss Rogan did not leave the punishment of her betrayer to a higher power than herself. As to the possibility that similar acts of personal vengeance would follow the probationing of this prisoner, the judge said such acts were so rare, none other having come before him in the 40 years of his service on the bench, that he would take the risk and order the release of the prisoner on probation.

Murderer Confessed.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 21.—Samuel Vanover has confessed to the brutal murder and robbery of Mrs. Mina Hall, a widow, and her 16-year-old son, Charles, at the mountain hamlet of Boones Fork, Letcher county, Ky., Nov. 13. Vanover lived at the Hall home and on his testimony Solomon and Elizabeth Fleming were arrested and indicted for murder and were threatened with lynching, their trial being set for February. Vanover has been behaving strangely the past week, and breaking down confessed he murdered Mrs. Hall and her son and stole money hidden in the house, probably $1,000. He had $400 sewed in his clothing when he confessed. He is under strong guard and will be tried for lunacy.

AGREE WITH GROVER.

Former President's Satellites Indorse His Recent Utterances.

ONLY OLNEY HOLDS HIS TONGUE.

Members of Cleveland's Cabinet Swear By the Declarations of their Orator. Why They Think Democratic Party Needs Reorganization.

New York, Dec. 21.—Commenting on ex-President Cleveland's statements in regard to the Democratic party, Richard Olney, secretary of state in the second Cleveland administration, said: "I have read an abstract of the article, but I do not care to discuss the subject now. I would prefer to wait till I have read the article in its entirety before expressing an opinion, if I have one to express."

J. Sterling Morton: "I fully concur in the opinions of Mr. Cleveland as to the causes of the defeat of the Democratic party in 1896 and also as to the reasons for its bitingly accentuated and vehemently emphasized wallowing in 1900. Until all the heresies of Bryanarchy are renounced by the Democracy it will remain a minority. I would prefer a realignment of American voters under a new name which opponents could taunt with no past."

Congressman Dearnon of Missouri: "I think the former president is correct in his conclusion that it is not necessary for the party to put itself for reorganization purposes into the hands of those who deserted it. When he informs us at what time in its history the rank and file of the Democratic party were consulted more fully than in 1896 and 1900 we shall know better how to estimate his estimate of his own deliberations."

Hilary A. Herbert, who was President Cleveland's secretary of navy: "I endorse the article heartily, excepting insofar as it may be a criticism of the action of the Democratic party in supporting Greeley on the liberal Republican platform of 1872. If Mr. Cleveland had meant to say that the Greeley movement was, taken as a whole, unwise, I should put in my emphatic dissent. The times in 1872 were abnormal. The southern states were in the throes of carpetbag misrule. For the southern people it was a question of life or death. The south turned to Greeley in its distress and he became in fact, the candidate of the southern, rather than of the northern Democracy. The effect of this support was to open the eyes of northern voters and in the next elections came the tidal wave of 1874. Still Mr. Cleveland is right in saying that the rank and file of the Democrats could not be brought into line to support an old antagonist. Taken altogether there is no answering Mr. Cleveland's arguments."

John DeWitt Warner: "My idea is that Democrats can best help the party by taking every opportunity to work against the Republican party. I agree with Mr. Cleveland that it is not so much the reorganization of the party that is necessary as the return to old principles, the first of which I believe to be to make a decided stand on behalf of the people against any fresh attempt by the syndicate that exploits McKinley to loot the American people for its benefit."

Senator Frye's Wife Dead.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Mrs. William P. Frye, wife of the president pro tem of the senate, died suddenly at the Hamilton hotel at 9:30 a. m. Mrs. Frye suffered an acute attack of indigestion Tuesday and had since been ill. When she arose she was apparently much improved and partook of breakfast. Shortly after leaving the table the end came without the slightest warning, heart failure causing death. The body was taken to Lewiston, Me., the home of Senator Frye, for burial.

Remains a Mystery.

Steubenville, O., Dec. 21.—No developments have yet lead to discovering the identity of the well-dressed young woman whose dead body was found floating in the river. Because of her throat being cut it is believed she was murdered. Her three rings, one bearing the initials "A. G." and a bracelet are in possession of the officers for identification.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Chairman Southard of the house committee on coinage will call a meeting soon after the holidays to take up the bill suggested by the New York chamber of commerce and introduced by Mr. Levy (N. Y.) providing for the exchangeability of gold for all kinds of money when presented at the treasury. Hearings will be given Secretary Gage and prominent representatives of commercial interests regarding the matter.

KEPT HIS SECRET.

Daring Desperate in Life and Met Death With Bravado.

Paris, Dec. 21.—Preserving to the last the silence with which he has shrouded his identity, John Owens, alias Radcliffe, went bravely to an ignominious death on the gallows for the brutal murder of James F. Hogue. About 200 persons were present.

Owens murdered James Hogue of this city in a Big Four stock car the night of September 22. Hogue and a young man named Emory Vandeventer got into the car at Paris to ride to Terre Haute, Ind. Soon after leaving this city they were attacked by Owens and Dailey, who had been secreted in a dark corner of the car, and were asked to hand over their money. Vandeventer complied, giving Dailey $8 40. Hogue resisted, and after striking his assailant made his escape to the top of the car. Owens followed and shot him. Returning to the car Owens got another revolver from Dailey and mounting to the top of the car fired several more shots into Hogue's body and kicked him off the car. In the meantime Vandeventer slipped out of the car and took a position on the brake rod. He rode to Terre Haute and gave information which resulted in the arrest of Owens and Dailey, who left the train at West Terre Haute. Both confessed the crime. Owens pleaded guilty and was sentenced to be hanged. Dailey stood trial and the jury gave him 40 years in the penitentiary.

Owens carried the mystery of his past life to the scaffold. Though inquiries have come to the sheriff from all portions of the country regarding him, all clues as to his identity proved false. From the little he told himself it is probable his home was in Bell county, Ky., and that he was well connected there. Though he admitted a career of crime for 15 years and bore on his body the marks of several cutting and shooting affrays, he was not known or recognized by the authorities of any of the penitentiaries to which his description was sent.

River News.

Stanley and Wells down Sunday. Bonanza for Pomeroy to-night.

The Hudson had to turn back from Sewickley. She is to-night's packet for Pittsburg.

The Secretary of War Friday transmitted to Congress the survey, by Captain Hodges, of the Big Sandy river, for twenty-one locks and dams at an estimated cost of $4,725,000. Hodges believes the improvements should be continued, and advises a $150,000 appropriation for immediate use and $2,080,000 for the future.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company will ask for estimates soon for a new towboat, to be the largest and most powerful towing craft ever designed. It will be 275 feet long, fifty-three feet wide and eight feet depth of hold. It is expected that the new boat when completed and equipped will be able to handle a tow of from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 bushels of coal.

The Snyder-Barthel Company will enter the field as active competitors of the Pittsburg coal combine in the marketing of coal for New Orleans. In order to do this the company is endeavoring to purchase one of the several ship-yards located between Cincinnati and Pittsburg. This action was determined upon after it was learned that certain Pittsburg companies had refused to build barges for the company.

Isaac Disher has sold to John J. Disher and wife three and one-half acres on the Two Lick pike for $65. Also a half interest in 142 acres near Woodward's Chapel for $1,500 cash.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court has appointed a committee to investigate the feasibility of appropriating money toward assisting in the erection of a public library in Paris. "These gentlemen are public-spirited citizens, and no doubt fully awake to the great importance of having a library where every citizen of Bourbon County will be allowed access to the books," says the Paris Democrat.

MAGNIFICENT DARING.

Dewet's Escape Was One of the War's Most Thrilling Incidents.

BOER SITUATION WAS DESPERATE.

Artful Dodger Was Equal to the Occasion—Guns Dashed Through the British Lines Under Fire Of British Artillery.

Bloemfontein, Dec. 21.—Details of General Dewet's escape from the encircling British column show that it was one of the boldest incidents of the war. When Haasbroek's command joined Dewet Dec. 12, some 15 miles east of Thabanchu, General Knox was only an hour distant and the Boer situation appeared desperate. But Dewet was equal to the occasion. Despatching Haasbroek westward to make a feint at Victoria Nek, Dewet prepared to break through the British columns at Springhau Nek pass, about four miles of broad, flat, unbroken ground. At the entrance were two fortified posts, with artillery on a hill eastward watching the Boers. Suddenly a magnificent spectacle was presented. The whole Boer army of 2,500 men started at a gallop in open order through the nek. President Steyn and Perit Fourie led the charge and Dewet brought up the rear. The British guns and rifles boomed and rattled incessantly. The Boers first tried the eastward route, but encountering artillery, they diverged and galloped to the front of the hill to the westward, where the fire of only a single post was effective.

The whole maneuver was a piece of magnificent daring and its success was complete, in spite of the loss of a 15-pounder and 25 prisoners. The British force was detached after Haasbroek came in contact with his commando at nightfall. The burghers were scattered and Welsh yeomanry galloped among the retreating Boers, using their revolvers and the butt end of their rifles with great effect.

An incident of the fight was the gallop of a British ammunition wagon right through the scattered Boers, the gunners using their revolvers freely.

Gloomy Outlook.

London, Dec. 21.—The general outlook in South Africa is regarded as blacker than at any time since the Boer war began. Persistent reports are circulating in the political clubs of a widespread rebellion in Cape Colony. This is believed to be the cause of Lord Salisbury's gloomy speech Tuesday. The situation is regarded with deep alarm, as it is feared Lord Kitchener's supplies are in danger of being cut off. Lord Kitchener is said to have sent a dispatch demanding 30,000 more mounted men as essential to the security of the British position in South Africa. No practicable scheme for providing the reinforcements has yet been framed by the war office.

Vote Was a Tie.

Darmstadt, Dec. 21.—By the president casting his vote, the second chamber defeated a motion to instruct the Hessian representatives in the Bundesrath to propose the assembling of the foreign affairs committee with the object of initiating a proposal for arbitration between Great Britain and the Transvaal, there being 22 votes cast each way. All the Anti-Semites and Social Democrats favored the motion. Representatives of the government left the house before the debate on the motion.

Divorce Bill Penalties.

New York, Dec. 21.—Henry Zeimer, one of the heads of a fraudulent divorce bureau was sentenced to 10 years in state prison and James Holden, alias Frank Wilson, a professional co-respondent, to three years in state prison. Mrs. Byrd Herrick and Mary Thompson, who said they had testified falsely in divorce cases were allowed to go under suspended sentence.

Boiler Explosion.

Sneedville, Tenn., Dec. 21.—By the explosion of a large boiler at Blenkinsbeckler's sawmill William Edwards, engineer, and Pleasant Trent, fireman, were instantly killed. Jesse Mahan and Lee Gordan were fatally injured.

The Paterson (N. J.) Ribbon Company, which has been employing 800 hands, has reduced the force to 100, and has given notice that on January 1st it will close permanently. That's leaving "well enough alone" with a vengeance.

The Morning Democrat of Lexington does not mince words in denouncing the threat of certain lawyers and doctors to sue the estate of the late Governor Goebel for fees. "They are simply trying," says the Democrat, "to force Mr. Arthur Goebel to stand up and deliver any outrageous amount they may demand, on the hypothesis that he will do so to avoid a legal action. But Mr. Goebel is not of the stuff that will submit to highway robbery either by masked or other kinds of robbers. It was worth no more to doctor the wounded statesman than similar services to any other man, and no jury in Christendom will permit doctors and lawyers to extort money from an estate simply because that estate is valuable. Mr. Goebel needs no admonition to stand up for his rights. He is the kind of a man always to do so."

COCHRAN MAY GET IT.
 Strong Boom for the Maysville Lawyer for the New Federal Judgeship—Judge Pugh Wants It.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—It is reliably reported here that strong influence of both a political and judicial nature has been started in Kentucky in behalf of Judge A. M. J. Cochran, of Maysville, for the new Federal District Judgeship. While Representative Pugh is credited with having the backing of Senator Deboe, it is by no means certain that he will receive the appointment. In fact, unless the President completely ignores men who naturally have a say in regard to judicial appointments in Kentucky, Mr. Pugh will be beaten. It has been said that when the President appointed Judge Evans he "promised" Pugh that he should have the Judgeship if the present bill was passed. However, this is not generally believed and outside of Senator Deboe and the Louisville Federal crowd, Judge Cochran will have the endorsement of all other Kentucky Republicans.

STATE Y. M. C. A.
 Reports Indicate Substantial Growth and Progress—Annual Convention to be Held at Louisville.

The reports at the monthly meeting of the State Executive Committee of the Young Men's Christian Associations of Kentucky, Thursday evening in Louisville, indicated substantial progress and growth. Five thousand two hundred dollars has been subscribed towards the $10,000 needed for the expense of the State work for the year ending February 1, 1901.

The railroad work committee reported the progress of the erection of the railroad department building at Ashland, costing $7,000, chiefly contributed to by the C. and O. and A. C. and I. railroad companies, and the movement at Corbin, where the L. and N. will give $2,500 and the employees have raised $1,500. Work on the new building will be begun at once.

The arrangements for the twentieth annual State convention, to be held in Louisville February 21 to 24, 1901, are nearly completed. The State committee has secured a program of great strength and attractiveness. Among the speakers, besides those from Kentucky, will be Messrs. Richard C. Morse, John R. Mott and Fred B. Smith, Secretaries of the International Committee, New York; W. M. Wood, of Chicago; F. H. Burt, State Secretary, Missouri; Prof. G. W. Moorehead, Xenia, O., and Bishop C. B. Galloway, of Jackson, Miss., who will address the session of Friday night, February 22, on the subject: "Young Men as Christian Patriots."

REPUBLICAN RUMPUS.
 The Bradley and Deboe Factions Are Making It Warm for Each Other Just Now.

[Enquirer.]
 "I saw former Adjutant General Dan Collier, of our city, a few mornings ago, just after his return from Washington, where he had been to make application for the Internal Revenue Collectorship vacated by Hon. John W. Yerkes, now Commissioner of Internal Revenue," said Colonel John W. Miller, distiller of Lancaster, Ky., "and he told me that it was all over with him, and that George W. Welsh, he thought, would be appointed. Colonel Collier said that he had been offered the position of Revenue Agent, but had declined it. Colonel Collier will no doubt be a candidate for State Senator if he does not get some satisfactory appointment. Ex-Governor Bradley and Colonel Collier are the closest of friends, and I understand that Senator Deboe would have endorsed Collier if Bradley had promised to keep out of the Senatorial race. Bradley, however, is not built that way just at this time, for it is related that he himself wants to be Senator if the Republicans should happen to lasso the Legislature. Bradley is a man of brainy resources and knows how to turn the political tricks. He is probably stronger with the masses of his party than Yerkes. Heretofore these two leaders of the party have been closely allied, but it is intimated that they are not as neighborly as formerly, and the settlement of the Collectorship may separate them widely. Mr. Welsh, the applicant for Collector, was a member and Treasurer of the State Campaign Committee and put in his best licks for Mr. Yerkes in the gubernatorial race. He is Cashier of a bank, which post he would have to resign if appointed Collector. Which ever way the appointment goes there is going to be dissension in the Republican ranks."

Tobacco Prices Advancing.
 E. C. Wilson, of Fayette County, this week sold his crop of tobacco (about 15,000 pounds) at 8 cents a pound. The Mt. Olivet Advance says: "Batte & McDowell, of Clayville, bought a number of crops in the Chapel neighborhood, paying from 5 to 7½ cents. J. W. Holmes purchased several crops at prices ranging from 5 to 8 cents. The tobacco crop in this county is of a splendid quality, and we believe that if the farmers will hold their crop a short time they will get a fairly good price for it."

 "There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation," were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. A BARREL OF CANDY FROM SANTA.

My dear Santa Claus, yours came to hand,
A whole barrel of candy, packed and jammed.
Just to think, a whole barrel of candy!
Why it's just dandy.
For sure you must know of a truth
I'm past my three-score, nearing my second youth;
Is it any wonder then when it came in at the door
My old eyes sparkled like a lass of four,
And my face grew as round and smiling as Kris?
For when I was young your name was Kris Kingle.
Perhaps it was because of your bells' merry jingle
I like it better.
Sometimes we would call it Kris Kingle,
Which was better still,
For sure 'tis a time of good will,
A time of kindling affections.
Perhaps that's why you sent it so sweet and so spicy,
To kindle and warm up my icy
Old heart toward a less for unate neighbor.
Yea, e'en now through my veins I feel the warm flow,
And O, would it had been a tierce or so,
Then I could send some to and fro
To kindle and cheer some other poor hearts
Into a softer glow—
Aye, would it had been a tierce or so!

FACTS AND FICTION.

Experience of Maysville Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts—Outside Testimony is Apt to Savor of Romance.

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Maysville is probably true. Read it and compare evidence from Maysville along with testimony from outside places, published side by side with this in the columns of this paper. Investigate still further and you will be surprised at the number of people in Maysville, who re-echo what this citizen says: Mr. W. H. Paul, of Market street, near Third, says: "I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and one box cured me of pains in my back and other evidences of a disordered condition of the kidneys that had given me much trouble for two years or more. This statement of fact is the strongest endorsement Doan's Kidney Pills could have as to their wonderful value."

Immense!

More so than ever before is the enormous stock of goods I carry, but you can only get a full conception of the magnitude by coming and seeing for yourself, which all are specially invited to do. Being encouraged by my largely increased business of the last year my purchases for the season now at hand have been enormously heavy in order to meet the rapidly growing demands of my trade, which is not now confined to retailing exclusively, but I have a large and steadily growing

WHOLESALE TRADE,

Which has to be supplied with the better class of goods, that are not to be found in many of the jobbing houses. I was early in the market, which enabled me to make my purchases—exclusively for cash—before the advance in prices of many of the leading articles. Therefore, I am prepared to successfully meet any and all competition. I handle nothing but the best goods, all of which I buy directly from the producers in large quantities at prices as low as any jobbing house in the State. I am always in position to sell the very best goods at prices as low, or even lower, than you pay for common, stale and trashy stuff at other places; besides I carry in stock many articles that can't be found in any other store in our city. Special attention is called to my very large and superior stock of

New Crop Plantation Molasses, Pure Lewis County Sorghum,

Green and roasted Coffee, Sugars and fine Teas, immense stock of canned goods of all kinds, pure Maple Syrup and Sugar, the finest brands of Hams, Breakfast Bacon and Leaf Lard, put up specially for my trade. ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR ASSESSOR.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for the office of Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic party. I am from the Lewisburg precinct, which, although the champion Democratic precinct of the county, has heretofore been ignored in the distribution of the offices, and my friends ask that she be recognized in this instance at least by my cordial support. If nominated, I will be elected; if elected, I will faithfully perform the duties of the office,—see the people, and not simply copy the old books. HORD LONG.

We are authorized to announce W. H. HAWES, of Minerva precinct, as a candidate for County Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

CURE

And all kindred complaints, due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It accomplishes its wonderful results first, by purifying the blood and counteracting the existing poisons; second, by toning up the kidneys, liver and stomach, and thus enabling them to dispel all foreign and unnatural secretions. Don't delay. At this time of the year everything is conducive to these distressing and treacherous diseases. At the first symptoms take this famous medicine. You will find it almost miraculous in its action and positive in its good results.
